YORK COUNTY

The annual Christmas carol concert on the factory whistle at New York Wire Cloth Co... York, will be played for the third straight year shortly after midnight tonight by Marlin L. Ryan. He plans to start his fournumber repertoire of Yule music at 12:15 a.m.

Assisting will be Harry L. Fetrow, maintenance supervisor, who has pulled the steam pipe open for the concert for many years, and Ryan's 15-year-old son, Donald. Both helped Ryan last year.

The musical selections will inlude "White Christmas," "O Come All Ye Faithful," "It Came Jpon The Midnight Clear" and Silent Night."

Ryan is director of the Emigsille Band and also instructs in rumpet playing.

Why Santa Claus Keeps His Trap Shut

At Christmas the one who's the shrewdest galoot

Is the elderly gent in the red flannel suit Nobody knows what he thinks where he stands. He's a good politician. He merely shakes hands.

It's lucky for him, this being so quiet. If he opened his trap, he'd be starting a riot. He has a white beard, and some deer and a sled And he scampers around while the kids are in bed.

His mission in life lies in giving for free The things people want, without charging a fee. He comes out of nowhere, he's gone in a flash.

Not a peep about politics, sin, sex or cash. Right now if the voters could choose them a man They liked above any, they'd vote for "Old San."

It's a wonder they would, since, as it was noted. He's never said anything, never
